

OHSI
OCCUPATIONAL HYGIENE
SOCIETY OF IRELAND

ANNUAL WORKSHOP 2023

Wednesday, 29th March
Strand Hotel, Limerick

13:30 Tea and coffee.

14:00 Mr Will Averdieck, Dust Canary, will present on the DustCanary range of personal monitors which alert wearers when they are being exposed to increased respirable dust, for real-time monitoring of respirable dust exposure.

14:25 Ms Maaïke Feber, TNO will present on a Virtual Occupational Hygiene Assistant (VOHA), a digital support tool launched by TNO. This measures exposure to chemicals and other agents.

14:50 Mr Ian Avery, GEA, will present on Digital Canary's continuous real-time monitoring system, designed to detect containment breaches in pharmaceutical production lines.

15:15 – 15:45 Tea and coffee.

15:45 Ms Michelle McDermott, Health and Safety Authority will present on the HSA's DRAFT Code of Practice for Indoor Air Quality.

16:10 Mr Chris Searles, EMS, will present on indoor air quality monitoring equipment.

16:35 Mr Benton Bair, Corrity, will present on software applications in occupational hygiene.

17:00 Dr Emanuele Cauda, Director NIOSH Centre for Direct Reading and Sensor Technologies will present on monitoring methodologies involving real-time technologies.

17:30 Close of workshop.